This programme of Expressive Arts training for teachers, artists and cultural educators supports the education and arts sector in facilitating the new Curriculum for Wales.

All courses are designed and delivered by specialist art practitioners who have a proven track record of facilitating effective professional learning. All face-to-face training is risk assessed in line with the latest Covid-19 guidance.

With support from the Welsh Local Government Association and Arts Council of Wales, the programme aims to develop skills, build confidence and generate ideas for teachers across Wales to design engaging Expressive Arts projects that support curriculum reform.
